SUNDAY SERVICES 10:30 A.M.

Dear Friends:

We are looking forward to another summer season at the Murray Bay Protestant Church and are hoping that you will be able to join us.

This year again, all July Sunday services will be held at St. Peter-on-the-Rock in Cap-à-l'aigle and all August Sunday services at the Murray Bay Protestant Church. All services will be held at 10:30 a.m.

We continue to celebrate the joy of worshipping together. Our two churches have entered an era of co-operating while maintaining the separate expenses of each building.

St. Peter-on-the-Rock

Church is expecting to welcome the following clergy this summer. On July 7th and 14th the Rev. Terry Ingram is

Bienvenue

St. Columba-by-the-lake in Pointe-Claire Québec.

In August, at the Murray Bay Protestant Church, we are hoping to welcome the Archbishop Bruce Stavert and his wife Diana for the first three Sundays.. The Staverts will be back and forth across the river as the first week of August marks some special events in their family. Later in August, we have invited back the Executive Archdeacon Garth Bulmer for the 25th of August and September 2nd.

We look forward to seeing our over 100 friends during our 9 summer services.

returning. You may remember last summer he preached on Sunday August 26th at the Murray Bay Protestant Church. On July 21st and 28th they will host the Reverend Ian Fraser of

HISTORY COMMITTEE

The History Committee is proud to announce that our church is one of just two in Quebec selected by the Quebec Cultural Ministry to appear on its prestigious research website. We were nominated for this honor by Annie Breton, Director of the Musée de Charlevoix, who will be working with the Société des musées québécoises and the Conseil du patrimoine religieux. We thank both Ms. Breton as well as Louise Dempsey McKean who translated our church histories into French last year and told Ms. Breton of our interest in the "families behind our plaques". We look forward to other opportunities to work with the Musée de Charlevoix.

INVITING OUR FRIENDS

Together with the Church of St. Peter-on-the-Rock, we have created a pamphlet. These will be placed in a number of locations around the region, including the Tourist Bureau. We have to thank the work of Molly Mackay Harvey Secretary of St. Peter's for the coordinating and editing of this brochure for both churches.

Flowers:

We hope that those of you who can will donate flowers for the altar or participate on the Hospitality Committee.

SUPPORTING OUR MINISTRY

Please do consider a generous contribution to the church this year. An envelope is enclosed. Americans get a tax deduction if their checks are drawn on a US bank and made payable to Friends of the Murray Bay Protestant Church. Receipts will be issued in January 2013.

All other checks will be received in Canadian Dollars as per Canadian, Customs and Revenue Agency standards.
